Prior to the hour of the convention a introversy in the Illinois delegation rowing out of the insurgent movement the party resulted in the refusal to ognize as a delegate Oliver W. Stewrt of Chicago. Stewart led a losing tht in the National Committee meet-Monday night against Chairman ones. At the Illinois State Convention Ir. Stewart failed of election as a deleate to the convention and to-day the im as a delegate. Mr. Stewart had been mentioned as a probable candidate for the Presidential nomination. PROHIBITIONISTS ARE EARLY

ON THE JOB. The Prohibition delegates apparently are earlier risers than most members as is customary. Attacks upon President Taft, Theo-ore Roosevelt and the Republican and Democratic parties in general marked the speech of Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., temporary chairman of the convention. The speech bristled with denunciation of the "boss ridden, liquor controlled old parties." He de-clared nothing in the way of real reform was to be gained from either of them or from a third party domin-

"No other President since the foun dation of this Government," declared Mr. Howard, "has surrendered more abjectly to the liquor interest of this nation than has William Howard Taft. His record is too recent, familiar and intelligent presence.
